

Kristine Piasecki grew up in Northeastern Minnesota on the Northern Shores of Lake Superior. She is an enrolled member of the Couchiching First Nation of Ontario, Canada, holds a BS in Accounting, with a background in administration, human resources, and project management. Kristine owns and operates Piasecki Solutions, a small business that recognizes the importance of advocating for organizational resources and equally advocating for the well-being of the worker. She is a self-taught artist who is driven by her activism and involvement with social justice and women's rights within her community. Kristine has a passion for leading with integrity, working from spirit and joy.

Kristine is an avid backyard gardener who continues to educate herself and her family the sacredness of growing their own food and collecting seeds. With dreams of sustainability and true sovereignty, Kristine is determined to assist Native American communities and organizations reconnect to the earth.